Similarities and differences between Italy and Norway

DISCIPLINE

Norwegian students normally keep in silence while the teachers are speaking...

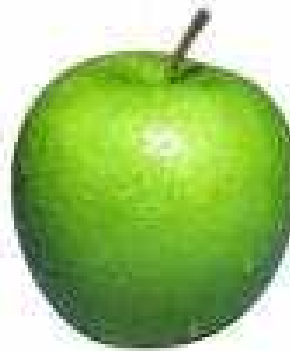

...while Italian students tend to talk a lot!!!

In Norway students can use PCs in the classroom while in Italy it is forbidden.

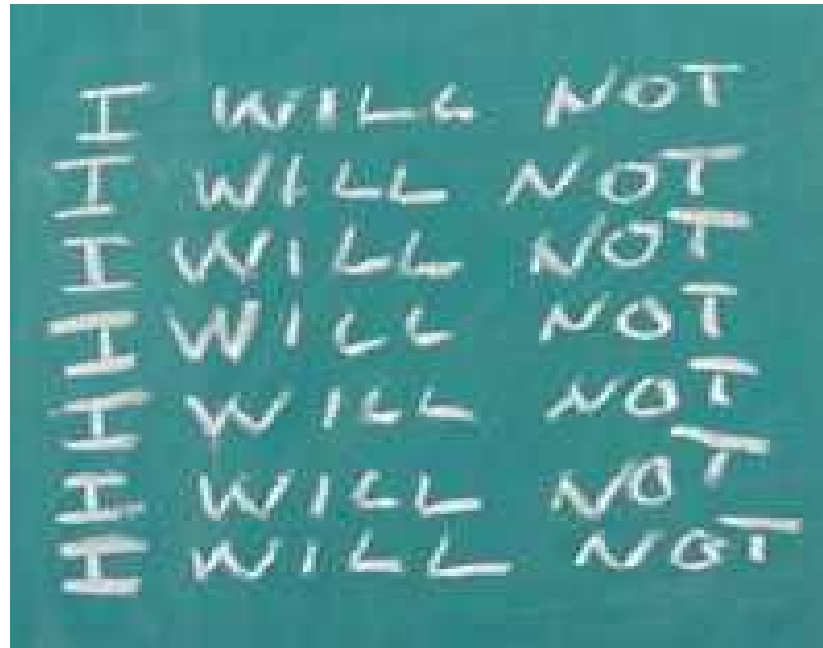

Norwegians can eat or drink during lessons if they ask permission while Italians aren't allowed to.

Smoking and drinking at school is banned in both countries.

PUNISHMENTS

PUNISHMENTS

Similar in both countries:

- The teachers can contact the parents in case of bad behaviour.
- If a student does something wrong the principal can send him/her away from the school.

DOS AND DONTS

In Norway it is impolite to blow one's nose in class.

It is common in Italy to hug and kiss friends.

DRESS CODE

- Students don't need to use uniforms.
- In Norway and in Italy the students are free to dress up as they want but they tend to use a casual style.

PERSONAL BOOKLET

- In Norway it is used like a diary.
- In Italy it is an official means of communication between teachers, students and parents.

TEACHER-STUDENT RELATIONSHIP

- In Norway teachers don't speak as loudly as Italian ones.
- Everywhere students are supposed to respect their teachers.
- Italians use a formal way to address teachers.
